

Cook Optionally Retrievable IVC Filters

NOTICE OF CERTIFICATION

To all residents of Canada: (a) who were implanted with an IVC Filter Product, namely: the Gunther Tulip Vena Cava Filter Set, the Cook Celect Vena Cava Filter Set, and the Cook Celect Platinum Vena Cava Filter Set (collectively, the “IVC Filter Products”), at any time on or before January 8, 2020 which was manufactured, marketed, and/or sold or otherwise placed into the stream of commerce in Canada by the defendants Cook (Canada) Inc., Cook Incorporated, and William Cook Europe APS (collectively; and

(b) who by virtue of a personal relationship to one or more of such persons described in (a) above, have standing in this action pursuant to section 61(1) of the Family Law Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. F.3, or any analogous provincial legislation.

[the “Class”]

IMPORTANT This notice does not constitute medical advice. Individuals who have had any IVC Filter Product placed should consult with their physicians if they have any questions with respect to their course of treatment and/or medical condition.

Class Action Lawsuit: Inferior vena cava (“IVC”) filters are devices designed to filter blood clots which may otherwise travel to the heart and/or lungs. Optionally retrievable IVC filters are a type of filter that may be removed if medically advisable to do so after a patient is no longer at risk of a pulmonary embolism. This class action lawsuit has been initiated in Ontario alleging that the Defendants marketed and sold IVC Filter Products without properly warning of alleged increased risks of complications and injuries. The class action seeks, among other things, damages, including for personal injuries, related to this alleged failure to warn as well as consequential damages suffered by family members. The Defendants deny the allegations, deny that the warnings were insufficient and stand by their products.

Certification: On January 8, 2020, the action was certified as a class action. The certification order appointed Arie Kuiper, Wendy Kopeck and Garry Kopeck to act as representative plaintiffs for the Class.

The following common issues have been certified to be determined by the Court:

- (a) Did the Defendants’ failure to disclose, or failure to sufficiently disclose, in their “Instructions for Use” (“IFUs”) that IVC Filter Products may cause injuries and complications, including device migration, perforation, fracture, and embolization, and if so, did such failure constitute a breach of the Defendants’ duty to warn?
- (b) If the answer to common issue (a) is “yes”, when did the breach of duty occur?
- (c) Did the Defendants’ fail to disclose, or fail to sufficiently disclose, in their IFUs the importance of timely removal of IVC Filter Products to avoid, reduce, or remediate complications, and if so, did such failure constitute a breach of the Defendants’ duty to warn?
- (d) If the answer to (c) is “yes”, when did the breach of duty occur?
- (e) Did the Defendants’ failure to disclose, or failure to sufficiently disclose, in their IFUs that the removal of their IVC Filter Products to avoid, reduce, or remediate complications may not be possible, and if possible, could require multiple surgeries, constitute a breach of the duty to warn?
- (f) If the answer to common issue (e) is “yes”, when did the breach of duty occur?
