APPENDIX A

AM I A U.S. PERSON?

The following checklist has been developed to determine whether you may be a U.S. Person for tax purposes Generally, a U.S. Person is a U.S. citizen or resident, domestic corporation (incorporated or domiciled in the United States), domestic partnership, trust or estate (domiciled in the U.S.).

Information regarding the determination of U.S. citizenship and residency is provided below. (Note: This information is not exhaustive and does not cover all situations that may arise. Clients are strongly encouraged to speak to their own professional advisor if they think there may be U.S. tax implications.)

Are you a U.S. citizen?

As indicated on the U.S. Citizenship and Immigrations Services website, you may be considered a U.S. citizen under the following circumstances:

- 1. Individuals who are born in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction of the United States and individuals born in certain territories or outlying possessions of the United States are citizens at birth.
- 2. Also, individuals born outside the United States may be citizens at birth if their parent or parents were citizens at the time of birth and other requirements are met.
- 3. Additionally, you may become a U.S. citizen after birth either through your parents, known as "derived" or "acquired" citizenship, or by applying for naturalization on your own.

Further information is available at the following website: http://www.uscis.gov/portal/site/uscis

Are you a U.S. resident?

Residency can be difficult to determine and is based on case facts. If you answer 'yes' to any of the following questions, you may be considered a U.S. resident.

- 1. Do you have a Green Card?
- Do you meet the substantial presence test? i.e., 31 days of presence in the U.S. in the current year and 183 days in the threeyear period that includes:
  - (a) all of the days in the current year where you were in the U.S.;
  - (b) 1/3 of the days present in the U.S. for the first preceding year; and
  - (c) 1/6 of the days present in the U.S. for the second preceding year.
- 3. Do you have dual citizenship status?
- 4. Is your spouse a resident of the U.S.? If so, have you elected to be a resident for US tax purposes?

Are you a Resident Canadian? (Required for Professional to act as the director of the professional corporation)

"Resident Canadian" is defined under the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) as an individual who is:

- (a) a Canadian citizen ordinarily resident in Canada;
- (b) a Canadian citizen not ordinarily resident in Canada who is a member of a prescribed class of persons; or
- (c) a permanent resident [within the meaning of the Immigration Act (Canada)] and ordinarily resident in Canada.
