

Amanda Shaw
Lawyer - Insurance Defence, Professional Negligence
& General Litigation

Phone: 519.660.7880   Fax: 519.660.7881
Email: amanda.shaw@siskinds.com

Amanda practices in all areas of civil litigation with an emphasis on defending professional negligence claims against police, representing clients in the insurance industry, and helping individuals with property and contract disputes.

Education
Dalhousie University, J.D.
Western University, B.A. Media, Information and Technoculture

Called to the Bar in 2016

About

Amanda is a senior associate lawyer working in general civil litigation. Her practice focuses on insurance defence, with an emphasis on defending professional negligence claims against public authorities, as well as individual property and contract disputes. Amanda has helped clients navigate legal proceedings before all levels of Court and prides herself on a firm but fair approach to advocacy.

Amanda is a lifelong Londoner with an educational and experiential background in critical media studies and early childcare education. Out of Court, Amanda enjoys tending to her indoor garden and her growing family.

Memberships and Associations

- Canadian Defence Lawyers Association
- Law Society of Upper Canada, Member
- Middlesex Law Association, Member
- Ontario Bar Association, Member

Community Involvement

Amanda is a member of London’s chapter of the Ontario Justice Education Network and regularly mentors high school law students interested in trial advocacy through in-class visits and mock trial coaching.

Other Languages

- French