About

Anna advocates for individuals and their families in all areas of personal injury law, including motor vehicle, nursing home, and sexual abuse litigation. Anna is meticulous and thoughtful in her approach. She is committed to a trauma-informed practice that focuses on client needs. Anna understands that litigation can be intimidating and helps clients to navigate it with dignity.

Anna has appeared before the Superior Court of Justice, the Licence Appeal Tribunal, and the Ontario Social Benefits Tribunal.

Anna is passionate about community involvement. She sits on the Board of Directors for Anova the Alexandra Marine & General Hospital Foundation. She is a member of the organizing committees for the Magical Winter Ball in support of the Child Life Program at Children's Hospital; and the Helmets on Kids Campaign.
