Education

Western University

Called to the Bar in 2011

About

Christina received her Juris Doctor from Western University in 2010, and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2011. Prior to joining Siskinds in 2017, she practiced insurance defence litigation. Having worked for the insurance industry, she now offers her clients valuable insight into the defence perspective. Christina has experience in all areas of personal injury law. Her practice focuses on serious personal injury and fatality cases arising from motor vehicle accidents, slip and falls, and other types of accidents, as well as insurance disputes.

Christina has successfully represented clients at all levels of Court in Ontario, including the Superior Court of Justice and the Court of Appeal for Ontario, as well as at the Financial Services Commission of Ontario and the Licence Appeal Tribunal. She is a passionate advocate, bringing expertise to each case, and is dedicated to achieving optimal results for her clients.

Christina endeavors to facilitate access to justice for her clients and their families. She strives to be accessible to her clients and their treatment providers, and fosters communication with her clients so that they may feel confident that they understand the litigation process and the strategy involved with their case.

Christina is a lifelong Londoner, and enjoys participating in and contributing to the London community.
