Like other, more recent newcomers to the area, Craig traded practicing his craft in Toronto for making a big difference in the lives of his clients back in Southwestern Ontario. He appreciates his freedom to directly impact their business outcomes, while also helping regional NFP organizations achieve their objectives.

About

Craig has been practicing business law since his Call to the Bar in 1991. His first 5 years were spent practicing as part of the management team for a corporate group in Toronto, after which he joined the business law group at Siskinds. Craig acts primarily for owner-operators, enjoying the interaction with the ultimate decision makers, and the ability to directly assist clients in their business endeavours. Craig also represents numerous not-for-profit organizations.

Away from the office, Craig is an enthusiastic participant in both indoor and beach volleyball - a sport enjoyed by his whole family, as well as skiing and golfing.

Notable Decisions

- Corporate Counsel on the sale of a regional landfill to the City of Toronto
- Counsel on the sale of an agricultural implements company to a New York investment firm.

Community Involvement

- London Hunt Club, Audit and Finance Committee
- LMI Investment Club, Co-Founder and President
- Men's B Indoor Volleyball, Crosscourt, Team Founder
- YMCA of Western Ontario, Past Board member and Audit Committee member
