About

Georgia is an associate lawyer in Siskinds’ class actions department. Based in our Toronto office, her practice is focused on representing plaintiffs in price-fixing, securities, and consumer protection litigation.

Georgia received her B.A. in Sociology from McGill University, where she was a member of the varsity track and cross-country teams. Prior to law school, Georgia worked at a leading cybersecurity company, followed by an international professional recruitment consultancy. She obtained her J.D. from Western University in 2023, where she was a caseworker and Team Lead at Western’s Community Legal Services and a member of the 2022 Jessup Moot team, which placed 8th globally. Georgia was called to the Bar in 2024 after summering and articling at Siskinds.
