About

Jay practices business law and technology law. Jay began his career at Siskinds and rejoined the firm after spending a number of years as in-house counsel at technology companies in London and Kitchener-Waterloo respectively.

Jay gained a deeper understanding of business priorities and strategy through his in-house experience. This perspective helps him drive favourable outcomes for clients.

Jay advises on a range of corporate, commercial, technology, privacy, and trademark matters. His experience includes domestic and cross-border acquisitions.
