About

Jennifer Herpers is an associate lawyer in Siskinds' labour and employment group. Her practice focuses on providing practical and innovative advice to assist employers in managing their employment relationships. In addition to providing pragmatic day-to-day advice, Jennifer represents clients before courts, administrative boards and tribunals.

Prior to joining the labour and employment group, Jennifer summered and articulated at Siskinds. While at Queen's Law, Jennifer participated in the Walsh Family Law Moot, where she and her partner received the Best Respondent Factum award. She also acted as an Associate Editor of the Queen's Law Journal.

Prior to law school, Jennifer obtained her Master of Arts in Criminology and Criminal Justice Policy from the University of Guelph, where she was a teaching assistant, research assistant, and guest lecturer.
