About

Joe is a lawyer in Siskinds' personal injury law group. Before joining Siskinds, Joe summered and articled at a leading Toronto litigation firm. He gained in-depth experience in the area of personal injury law and developed a strong interest in advocating on behalf of injured individuals.

Joe has appeared before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice, The Ontario Divisional Court, the License Appeal Tribunal, and the Social Security Tribunal of Canada.

Joe earned a BBA in Finance from Acadia University in Nova Scotia and a Law Degree from Western University. In addition to his academics, Joe played hockey in the Ontario Hockey League and participated at the varsity level during his studies at Acadia.

Before entering law school, Joe worked for a provincially funded organization as an employment facilitator, assisting individuals in receipt of Ontario Works and Ontario Disability Support.

Joe is motivated by helping his clients obtain fair compensation to maximize their quality of life following an injury.

In his spare time, Joe enjoys spending quality time with his wife and three daughters. In addition, he remains physically active, volunteers, and maintains close ties to Huron and Perth Counties.
