About

Katherine is the leader of the Professionals Practice Group and she advises physicians, dentists, pharmacists, accountants, veterinarians and other professionals on all matters of business law. She advises clients on various corporate law matters, including the formation of corporate legal structures, acquisitions and sales of professional practices, corporate reorganizations, regulatory and College matters, as well as establishing and maintaining professional corporations. In addition, Katherine assists professionals with estate planning including planning for wills, and powers of attorney.

Katherine received her Juris Doctor from Western University in 2013 and was called to the Ontario bar in 2014. Prior to attending law school, Katherine studied music at Western University where she obtained an Honors Bachelor of Music degree in vocal performance.

Prior to joining Siskinds, Katherine practiced corporate law at a large law firm in London, and served as in-house corporate legal counsel at a leading Canadian insurance company, advising on various business and legal matters.
