About

Leslie practices exclusively in personal injury litigation, advocating for individuals and families whose lives have been affected by injury. She is committed to providing compassionate, trauma-informed, and client-centred advocacy, working closely with clients to understand their circumstances and help them achieve meaningful outcomes.

Before joining Siskinds, Leslie practiced insurance defence, representing insurers in personal injury and civil litigation matters. This experience gave her valuable insight into how claims are investigated, assessed, and resolved, which she now uses to advocate effectively for injured people.

Outside of her practice, Leslie is committed to legal education, mentorship, and community involvement. She has taught in Fanshawe College’s Law Clerk and Paralegal Programs and serves as a Trustee of the Middlesex Law Association.

Leslie is fluent in English and French and is proud to serve clients in both official languages.
