About

Linda J. Visser is a partner of Siskinds LLP. Linda has a diverse class actions practice. She prosecutes complex price-fixing, product liability, consumer protection and pharmaceutical class actions.

Linda has been counsel in many important price-fixing cases, including the recent Supreme Court of Canada decision in Pioneer Corp. v Godfrey, 2019 SCC 42, which dealt with important issues relating to who can assert a claim based on price-fixing and what claims can be brought. Linda was also counsel in hydrogen peroxide - the first case to be certified on behalf of a class that includes indirect purchasers. Linda has argued at all levels of court, including before the Supreme Court of Canada. In recent years, she was before the Ontario Court of Appeal or Supreme Court of Canada on important legal issues, including the court's jurisdiction of foreign class members, whether umbrella purchasers (purchasers of the relevant product from non-defendant manufacturers) have a cause of action in a price-fixing claim, and whether the statutory claim contained in the Competition Act provides for discoverability.

Linda is a member of the Siskinds Board of Directors, shaping the future direction of the firm and making important decisions on investment in technology and IDEA (inclusion, diversity, equity and accessibility).

Linda is a member of the Ontario Class Action Bench-Bar Liaison Committee, and recently chaired the multi-jurisdictional subcommittee and the nominations subcommittee.

For the last several years, including most recently for 2023, Linda has been a ranked lawyer in the nationwide plaintiff class action lawyers rankings by Chamber & Partners.

In 2019, Linda was honoured as London's top 20 under 40 by London Inc. Magazine. Recipients are judged based on the overall impact of their work – both professional and volunteer contributions.

Linda Visser Partner - Class Actions

In 2014, Linda was awarded the Order of Merit by the Consumers' Association of Canada in recognition of her outstanding contribution to Canadian consumers.

Prior to joining Siskinds in 2007, Linda practiced commercial litigation in the Toronto office of a large national firm.

Notable Work and Decisions

Counsel to the class in the optical disc drive (ODD) class action

Action relates to alleged price fixing in the market for ODDs, which are used to read/write data to CDs, DVDs, Blu-ray drives, etc. Linda was counsel in a precedent setting Supreme Court of Canada decision, Pioneer Corp. v Godfrey, 2019 SCC 42, which dealt with important issues relating to who can assert a claim based on price-fixing and what claims can be brought.

Counsel to the class in the auto parts price-fixing class action

This is a collection of more than 40 cases relating to the alleged price fixing of automotive parts for installation in new vehicles. The auto parts litigation stems from, perhaps, the largest cartel in history (at least in terms of the number of companies implicated and fines levied). To date, settlements have been reached totaling more than $160 million.

Counsel to the class in the air cargo class action

Action relates to a global conspiracy to fix prices of surcharges levied on air cargo shipments. Linda was counsel before the Court of Appeal regarding the court's jurisdiction of foreign class members.

Linda Visser Partner - Class Actions

The Court of Appeal found in favour of the plaintiffs, holding that the court take assert jurisdiction over foreign class members. Airia Brands Inc. v. Air Canada, 2017 ONCA 792. Settlements have now been achieved with all defendants, totalling more than $45 million.

Counsel to the class in the hydrogen peroxide price-fixing class action

Linda was counsel in precedent setting price-fixing class actions, including the hydrogen peroxide case – the first price-fixing conspiracy class action in Canada to be certified on behalf of both direct and indirect purchasers. Irving Paper Ltd. v. Atofina Chemicals Inc., 2009 CanLII 92127. Settlements were achieved with all defendants totaling over $23 million.

Counsel to the class in the LCD price-fixing class action

Settlements were achieved all defendants totaling over $65 million. In the LCD case, the Ontario Court of Appeal ruled that the limitation period contained in the Competition Act is subject to discoverability. This is an important ruling from an access to justice perspective. The ruling ensures that companies are not able to avoid liability by concealing their conduct. Fanshawe College of Applied Arts and Technology v. AU Optronics Corporation, 2016 ONCA 621

Counsel to the class in the XL Foods beef recall class action

Action was certified on behalf of a Canadian and U.S. class. Harrison v XL Foods Inc, 2014 ABQB 720. A settlement was reached for persons who suffered personal or economic injury as a result of the recall.

Counsel to the class in the IKO organic roofing shingles class action

Action was certified on behalf of a national class. A settlement has been reached in the action for $7.5 million.

Counsel to the class in the chocolate products price-fixing class action

Settlements have been reached with all defendants totaling over $23 million.
