About

Matt is a real estate lawyer and the head of the Siskinds real estate department, with a practice focusing on residential, commercial and complex real estate transactions, land development, and mortgage financing. The Law Society of Ontario has recognized Matt as a Certified Specialist in Real Estate Law.

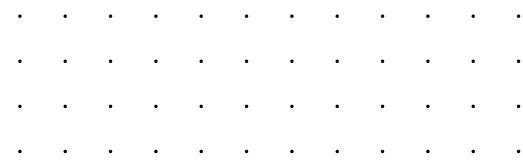

Matt obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree from Western University in London, Ontario, having attended the affiliated King's University College. He also obtained his law degree from Western.

A proud Londoner, Matt believes in being involved in the community, volunteering with organizations such as Western University and London Health Sciences Centre. Matt currently serves as an elected Benchler of the Law Society of Ontario, which is the regulator of lawyers and paralegals in Ontario.

Matt was recognized by Business London Magazine as one of London's Top 20 Under 40 in 2013, was awarded King's University College's Young Alumni Award in 2016, and in 2017 was selected to participate in the Governor General's Canadian Leadership Conference. In 2021 Matt was named one of Canada's Leading Lawyers to Watch by Lexpert in the field of property development.
