About

Michael is an associate practising in the class actions department. His practice is focused on representing plaintiffs in a wide range of litigation areas, including matters related to consumer protection and securities. Before joining Siskinds as an associate, he worked as a summer and articling student with the firm.

Michael graduated from the Dual J.D. program at the University of Windsor Faculty of Law and the University of Detroit Mercy School of Law in 2025. While attending law school, he worked at the Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic, where he assisted indigent clients with civil litigation matters. He also completed a Master of Arts degree in History while attending Western University, where he wrote a thesis focused on nineteenth-century child immigration to Southern Ontario.

Outside of his practice, Michael enjoy travelling, baking bread, and fostering senior rescue dogs.
