

Michael Weinberger

Lawyer - Business & Privacy Law

Phone: 519.660.7843 Fax: 519.660.7819

Email: michael.weinberger@siskinds.com

Michael's practice focuses on helping businesses seeking growth in Canada. In particular, Michael has developed three areas of expertise: Firstly, advising direct selling companies expanding into Canada. Secondly, guiding clients through privacy and cybersecurity matters. Thirdly, helping individuals start, buy, and sell companies. Michael is committed to giving effective advice to local, national, and international businesses in English, Spanish, French, and German.

Education

University of Edinburgh, LLB with Distinction
University of Frankfurt, Masters of Law and Finance
Harvard University- Principles of Economics
Université Paris-Saclay- Erasmus Programme

Called to the Bar in 2019

About

As a key member of the Siskinds M&A, Technology, and Direct Selling law groups, Michael brings with him a wide range of international, and national experience. From advising clients on expanding their direct selling business to Canada, to helping clients with their cyber and privacy legislative responsibilities, Michael's main focus remains steadfast: delivering client satisfaction and peace of mind.

Before joining Siskinds, Michael honed his skills at a Big Four firm in Frankfurt Germany as a foreign associate. In his spare time, he enjoys playing 5 minute blitz chess, pick-up hockey, and reading anything from the Financial Times, to Rabbinic Burns.

Memberships and Associations

- Direct Selling Association of Canada
- Member of the Ontario Bar Association
- Member of the Canadian Bar Association
- President of Canadian Latin American Association

Publication and Speaking

Michael's work has been published in leading peer reviewed legal journals.

Other Languages

Spanish, French, and German