About

Stefani is an associate lawyer in Siskinds' class actions department. Based in Siskinds' Toronto office, her practice is focused on representing plaintiffs in complex class actions litigation including securities, price fixing, and consumer protection class actions.

An avid musician and performer from a young age, Stefani obtained a Bachelor of Music degree in piano performance with distinction at Queen's University, and was awarded the Gold Medal in Music for achieving the highest academic standing in her class upon graduating. Prior to law school, Stefani also obtained a Master of Music degree in piano performance with distinction at the University of Ottawa.

Stefani obtained her J.D from Western University where she received the Dean of Law Entrance Scholarship and was a very active member of the Western Law community. She acted as a student ambassador for Western Law, was one of three students on the Admissions Committee for the 2016-2017 cycle, acted as a Staff Editor for the Western Journal of Legal Studies, and chaired the Western Law Social Committee. Prior to joining Siskinds, Stefani summered and articulated at a large, full-service firm in downtown Toronto, and worked as a lawyer at one of Toronto's largest Bay Street firms following her Call to the Bar in 2018.

In her spare time, Stefani enjoys travelling, walking her dog, Maya, and exploring Toronto's food scene.
